Five elephants have been released in the Quicama National Park. Each elephant has been tagged so that it can be identified in the future. Their names are Trumpet, Cuddly, Forever, Africa, and Noble.

Use the clues below to identify the name of each elephant. Write their name on the correct line.

Africa is the youngest of the herd and is always the last to arrive at the water hole.

Trumpet has been tagged with a circle.

Noble doesn't like to be between others.

Forever is Africa's mother and likes to stay close by.
